To the Honorable Chief Justice and Associate Justices
Supreme Court of Michigan

I am pleased to transmit to you and our citizens this Report concerning the Michigan Court System for calendar year 1986 in accordance with Michigan Court Rule 8.103.

This report contains basic information regarding the activities of the courts and other units within the judiciary, as well as a listing of committees and commissions who worked during the year toward the improvement of the Michigan Judicial System.

In addition to basic statewide statistical information, the report contains some analysis of that data presented in chart and graphic format. One copy of the statistical supplement giving detailed information on each of the 241 trial courts is being transmitted to each trial court, and additional copies are available on request.

This report would not be possible without the outstanding cooperation of Michigan's Judges, court personnel and the staff members of the State Court Administrative Office and the other agencies serving the Judicial Branch.

Yours very truly,

V. Robert Payant
State Court Administrator

DEDICATION

.....to Chief Justice G. Mennen Williams whose retirement at the end of 1986 marked 50 years of extraordinary service to the people and institutions of Michigan and the nation.

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY MESSAGE

MARCH 18, 1987

Governor Blanchard, Lieutenant Governor Griffiths, Speaker Owen, state officers, members of the House and Senate and all my splendid colleagues of our "One Court of Justice".

I am genuinely pleased to appear before you this afternoon to report to you and to the people of Michigan on the State of the Judiciary. All of us, legislators and judges alike, have a special reason to join together this year. Not only is 1987 the 200th Anniversary of the Constitution of the United States but it is also the 150th Anniversary of Michigan's statehood.

Our constitutional Bicentennial and Sesquicentennial celebrations give us reason to pause and consider again the underlying principles and the grand design that we commemorate this year. That design called for the division of the power of our Federal government into three independent branches and fifty years later it was to serve as a model, for Michigan's Constitution and division of state powers.

Our coming together this afternoon symbolizes our mutual recognition that while we have a constitutional responsibility to retain independence from each other, we also have a constitutional responsibility to each other. This Legislature bears the responsibility for developing a system of court financing and for legislating, within the structure established by the Constitution, the jurisdiction and the structure of the courts.

The Judiciary has the responsibility of managing the court system efficiently and to be fiscally responsible: the solemn duty to dispense justice and to report to you as I am doing now. History teaches that for our tripartite form of government to discharge its interrelated responsibilities effectively and preserve the delicate balance that exists between them, the three branches must communicate, accommodate and cooperate. It is in this spirit that I report to you this afternoon.

Over the past several years, to meet the growing needs of the trial courts throughout the state, our court has resolutely attempted innovative measures to improve the quality of justice delivered to the people of Michigan. Under the Court's leadership and with the assistance of State Court Administrator, Judge V. Robert Payant, the judges of our state have had substantial success, despite the fact that their courts often lack adequate equipment, operate out of crowded, makeshift facilities, and in many instances, are understaffed. To the extent that our efforts have been successful, it has been because we have had the full cooperation of the Judges' Associations and the 571 State Judges whom they represent. Approximately one hundred and ninety of our judges are here this afternoon having attended a session of the Michigan Judicial Institute this morning. I am grateful to them and to their associations and I would like to acknowledge their Presidents who are with us this afternoon.

1. The President of the Michigan Judges Association, the Honorable Hilda R. Gage.
2. The President-elect of the Michigan Probate Judges Association, the Honorable Barry M. Grant.
3. The President of the Michigan District Judges Association, the Honorable Robert J. La Rose.

The justice system of our state, however, is not made up of judges alone. Lawyers are the front line of the system and I am pleased to say that the organized Bar has been most supportive of our Court's efforts to improve the quality of our court system. It is for this reason that I am pleased to acknowledge the President of the State Bar of Michigan, Mrs. Julia D. Darlow.

Implicit in the concept of cooperation and accommodation between the three branches of government and the Bench and the Bar, is the need to communicate. During the past several years we have made deliberate efforts to keep our lines of communication open with each of you. This past year we reached out to the community and provided a vehicle, the Citizens' Commission, that enabled the public to communicate with us.

Cooperation and Accommodation Between Bench and Bar

One of the programs initiated by the Supreme Court last year that illustrates the outstanding cooperation we have received from both the Bench and Bar is the work of the Caseflow Management Coordinating Committee under the supervision of Justice Dennis W. Archer. Responding to increasing caseloads and concerns raised by Michigan citizens in a survey conducted in conjunction with Justice Patricia J. Boyle's Citizen's Commission, this Committee is hard at work:

1. Developing time guidelines, and,
2. seeking improved technology.

In addition, the Michigan Judicial Institute, the Supreme Court's continuing education arm, will be playing a vital role in this caseflow management project. The Institute under the supervision of Justice Michael F. Cavanagh and the direction of Dennis W. Catlin, designed an innovative program to define and achieve excellence in case management which, beginning in June and continuing throughout the next year, will bring together teams of chief judges, court administrators, county clerks, and other court personnel from trial courts throughout the state. Through a series of training sessions these teams will focus on their case management problems and develop solutions for their own courts. Given the 17% increase in new filings in the trial courts of our state in 1986, the work of this committee is crucial to controlling case loads statewide. Voluntary implementation of the Committee's recommendations in some jurisdictions has already had significant impact on reducing case processing time; however, lack of modern information systems slows overall progress.

The Supreme Court itself has also been working to reduce its own backlog - we have cut our backlog of pending cases in half over the last three years. For this same time period we have continued to reduce the time from filing to disposition of a typical appeal by one-third for an average time of less than seven months. In 1986, opinions were also released an average of seven months after oral argument.

Cooperation and Accommodation Toward Legislative Programs

Recent legislative initiatives of critical social, economic and technological import have required concomitant judicial responses and these responses are illustrative of our effort to accommodate to legislative programs. These actions are reflected in increased judicial and administrative workloads without, in many instances, comparable increases in our judicial appropriations. Among these serious public concerns which judges and lawyers join you in addressing are programs such as:

1. Sentencing Guidelines. This program, under the direction of Justice Michael F. Cavanagh, structures guidelines for felony sentences to eliminate disparity and provide a sound basis for uniformity and consistency in sentencing throughout Michigan. The committee continues to review and refine the guidelines.

2. Victims' Rights. We also share your concern that Michigan recognize the rights of citizens who are the victims of crime. The Crime Victim's Rights Act of 1985 strengthens these rights and provides responsibilities and opportunities for the courts to further safeguard the rights of the hapless victim of crime.

3. Protection and Treatment of Children in Need of Care. In a similar way, your efforts in recent years to assure every child in Michigan the best possible environment in which to live and grow have heightened sensitivity to the plight of children and families enmeshed in the court system. We applaud your focus on this often forgotten segment of society and pledge to continue to work with you in the specific areas of Foster Care Review Boards and Friend of the Court programs.

The Supreme Court, recognizing the crucial role which the judiciary plays in the provision of services to families and children, established the Probate Court Task Force in 1986 to examine how best to deliver services to the children of Michigan. The report of the Task Force, chaired by the Honorable Raymond L. King, President of the Probate Judges Association, will be made available to you later this spring. We urge that you carefully consider their recommendations - many of which may require legislation and impact on funding for children's services by the state.

Cooperation and Accommodation with the Executive Branch

Many programs initiated by the Supreme Court require and, I might add, happily receive cooperation with the Executive Branch of State Government. Among these continuing efforts are:

1. Liaison with the Michigan Department of Social Services with whom we have cooperatively developed:

    A. An effective child support enforcement system which resulted in collection of $572 million in child support in 1986. Michigan ranks #2 in the nation in total collection, however we are #1 in terms of cost efficiency.

    B. Recommendations for a Foster Care Licensing Program.

    C. Recommendations for an information and data sharing system, and

    D. Recommendations for adult protective services guidelines.

2. Cooperative efforts with the Attorney General's Office in the processing of welfare fraud cases resulting in over $800,000 in revenue to the State General Fund.

3. Establishment of a Joint Task Force with the Secretary of State to improve reporting on convictions for traffic violations.

Opening Lines of Communication with the Public

Public awareness of the importance of the judicial role in society is evidenced not only in the 3.2 million cases, excluding parking violations, filed in Michigan's courts in 1986, but also by the increasing coverage of judicial proceedings. The product of the "One Court of Justice" is justice. Unlike the products of industry or services of government, justice is an integral part of our form of government. Unlike an automobile or a highway, one cannot point to justice. Yet justice is very real to the people of Michigan whether they have been personally involved in a lawsuit or, equally as important, affected by decisions impacting on their personal liberties or property interests.

In 1986, Justice Patricia J. Boyle supervised the Citizens' Commission to Improve the Judiciary. This commission, composed of 26 citizens from throughout Michigan, was charged with advising the Court on improvements in our legal system. Their recommendations are currently under review by the Supreme Court and the Court has enlisted the services of former Chief Justice, G. Mennen Williams, to assist us in the implemenation effort. Many of these recommendations will require your support through enabling legislation in some instances and funding in others. We commend this effort of Michigan's citizens and urge your assistance in making their suggested improvements.

The confidence of the public in the court system is essential to maintaining the public trust required by our Constitution. Several continuing programs assure and preserve the quality of the legal profession and thus the judicial system in Michigan. Among these safeguards are:

1. Five ABA accredited Michigan Law Schools,
2. A Board of Law Examiners which implements requirements for both character and fitness and a written examination before admission to the Bar,
3. Grievance procedures which provide a forum for the public to grieve actions of both attorneys and judges, and
4. Continuing legal education programs for both judges and attorneys.

Need for Adequate Judicial Funding

All of the efforts that I have cited reflect a judicial branch sensitive to the awesome responsibilities of the Executive and Legislative Branches and to the needs of the public, which we all serve. All of these efforts reflect a Judicial Branch whose budgetary requests deserve the necessary funding to enable it to cooperate with and accommodate to your initiatives and fulfill its mandate under the Constitution. To put it simply that means a bigger piece of the pie . . . a larger part of the state's total budget.

While the particulars of the judicial budget will be addressed in the normal appropriations process, let me outline some general concerns which affect the functioning of the Michigan Judiciary.

The entire judicial budget of the State of Michigan constitutes less than 1% of the State General Fund. I direct your attention to the cover of your program. That is what less than 1% of the pie looks like. And, because our share of the pie is so miniscule, local government (counties, cities, and townships) continues to bear the burden of financing the judiciary of this state. However, they are finding it more and more difficult to adequately fund the courts in your communities.

While your efforts to assist local governments through judicial standardization payments have resulted in more uniform judicial salaries, resources available at the local level are still insufficient to fund your courts. The completion of the State Financing Model which was enacted into law in 1980 for the Wayne Circuit, Recorder's, and 36th District Courts may not be feasible statewide at this time. If you conclude so, then I urge you to explore alternative proposals. One such proposal advanced by the Michigan Supreme Court last year and, which has now been endorsed by the judicial associations, the State Bar, many counties, and other concerned groups, would fund specific mandated court services statewide. State assumption of such services as juror and witness fees and the cost of assigned counsel, appellate counsel, and transcripts would greatly alleviate the burden on local government.

Solutions must be found and choices made to adequately fund our court system. We urge you to take a statesman-like approach to find the necessary revenue to provide equitable funding for all of Michigan's courts. We welcome the opportunity to work with you in this effort and we have specially assigned Justice James H. Brickley to work with us on this matter.

On behalf of the Judiciary, I thank each of you for helping us achieve some of our goals this past year. Together, we have made some advances and we share with you the satisfaction of working together to give continuing vitality to our Constitution which we have come to cherish as a living document.

This is why so many of my colleagues are here this afternoon. We are here to thank you for all you have done; to pledge our full support and to ask that you understand that we cannot stop pursuing needed assistance from you to perform our constitutional functions. Because our judicial responsibility is constitutionally and statutorily mandated, we cannot reduce our services. We can only delay them or postpone them . . . alternatives that we do not view as acceptable to you or your constituents.

Thus I urge that, as each of us reflects on the grand design of our United States Constitution, we understand the need to communicate, accommodate and cooperate to fulfill our constitutional responsibilities to each other and to the people of Michigan.

In the months ahead, I ask that we reflect on the spring and summer of 1787--the long tumultuous months leading up to the 17th of September 1787. I ask that you consider again the courageous legislative process a political process in its finest sense that produced our Constitution. And then I ask, that like your legislative forebears, in the spring and summer of 1987 you act to ensure the viability of the Judicial Branch, to enable it to carry out its constitutionally mandated responsibilities to the people of Michigan.

THE SUPREME COURT

The Michigan Supreme Court is the highest court in the State, hearing cases appealed to it from other State Courts. Applications for "leave to appeal" are filed with the Supreme Court, and the Court decides whether to grant them. If an application is granted, the Supreme Court will hear the case. If denied, the decision of the lower court stands.

In addition to its judicial duties, the Supreme Court is charged with general administrative supervision of all courts in the State. This is referred to in the State Constitution as "general superintending control." The Supreme Court is responsible for establishing rules for practice and procedure in all courts.

The Supreme Court consists of seven Justices - the Chief Justice and six Associate Justices. Two Justices are elected every two years (one in the 8th year) in the November election. Their eight-year terms begin in January following election. One Justice is selected (every two years) by the Court as Chief Justice. Although nominated by political parties, the Justices are elected on a non-partisan ballot, entirely separate from the ballot for other elective offices. Candidates for the Supreme Court must be qualified electors, licensed to practice law in Michigan, and at the time of election must be under 70 years of age. The salary of the Justices is fixed by the State Officers Compensation Commission and paid by the State.

Sessions of the Supreme Court are held in Lansing where the Justices hear oral arguments by attorneys in cases in which leave to appeal has been granted and which have been submitted in written briefs several weeks in advance of the hearing. The written opinion in each case, which receives the approval of a majority of the Justices, becomes the decision of the Court. A Justice may write a "concurring" opinion agreeing with the result of the majority opinion but for reasons different from those expressed in the majority opinion. If a justice disagrees with the majority opinion in whole or in part, the Justice may write the reasons for the disagreement in a "dissenting" opinion.

Court officers, who are appointed by the Justices to assist in the administration of the courts of the state, include the State Court Administrator, who performs administrative duties assigned by the Court. This position is established in the State Constitution.

Activities and Workload

In 1986 there were 2,007 cases filed with the Supreme Court. The number of cases filed has tripled since 1972 when 658 cases were filed (see Figure 1.1). The largest number of filings for any year (2,352) occurred in 1984. Filings have decreased by 13.0% since 1984.

The number of cases completed in 1986 was 2,330 (see Figure 1.2). This represents a a decrease from 1984 which was the record year for completed cases, however, corresponding new filings were also down from 1984.

The number of cases pending has declined from a high in 1982 of 1,648 to 800 in 1986 (see Figure 1.3). This represents a decrease of 51%. Since 1982 the Supreme Court has completed mores cases each year than have been filed. The increase in completions relative to the number of filings has resulted in the decrease in pending cases.

The majority of filings (95%) were applications for leave and prisoners' letter requests for review. Slightly over half of the cases filed were criminal matters and somewhat less than half were civil matters (see Figure 1.4).

In 1986, 123 cases were completed by opinion, 184 were completed by final orders without opinion, and 40 were dismissed or withdrawn (see Figure 1.5).

During the one-year period ending June 30, 1985, the Court issued 727 separate additional orders on motion matters. Over 1,000 motions were acted upon which were included within the final order issued to complete the work of the Court on a case.

During 1986 the Supreme Court released a number of significant opinions dealing with a wide range of legal issues. Among the topics dealt with were: The Handicappers' Civil Rights Act (Carr v General Motors); the method of nominating Supreme Court Justices (Committee for Constitutional Reform v Secretary of State); the creation of the workers' compensation Board of Magistrates (Civil Service Commission v Department of Labor); the asbestosis statute of limitations (Larson v Johns-Manville); the "serious impairment" of body function in personal injury cases (DiFranco v Pickard); and petitions for amendments to the state constitution (Consumers Power v Attorney General).

In addition to deciding cases, the Supreme Court administers the State's One Court of Justice. In this capacity, the Supreme Court's tasks multiply yearly. Rule-making, continuing education of judges and court personnel, oversight of lower courts, and addressing various problem areas in court operations were but a few of the 1986 concerns. Consideration of court rule changes and other administrative matters was undertaken at 26 of the Court's weekly conferences. A total of 126 such matters were considered.

The Court, for example, proposed extensive changes in Juvenile Court Rules and in the rules governing attorney disciplinary procedures, and is considering the adoption of rules of criminal procedure and new rules of attorney professional conduct.

Under the leadership of Chief Justice G. Mennen Williams, several committees undertook the analysis of administrative issues and the formulation of possible solutions. The Mediation Evaluation Committee submitted an extensive report to the Court in 1986. The Caseflow Management Coordinating Committe, supervised by Justice Dennis Archer, continues its review of means to expedite case processing in trial courts. The Task Force on the Role of Probate Court in the Delivery of Services to Children and Families was organized under the supervision of Justice Dorothy Comstock Riley and began its work in 1986 and will issue a final report in early 1987.

The most visible of the court appointed committees was the Citizens' Commission Improve the Michigan Courts, supervised by Justice Patricia J. Boyle. In addition to holding committee meetings to identify possible improvements in the State's courts, receiving testimony from court experts, conducting research, and undertaking a public opinion survey, the citizen panel held public hearings throughout the state in St. Joseph/Benton Harbor, Gaylord, Grand Rapids, Marquette, and Detroit to hear testimony from members of the public. The Citizens' Commission Final Report, presented to the Court in October, made 50 recommendations (5 of them specifically addressed to the Legislature) to improve the user-friendliness of Michigan courts. The Supreme Court began immediate consideration of the Commission's recommendations to determine in what manner they are to be implemented.

THE COURT OF APPEALS

The 1963 State Constitution established the Court of Appeals as an "intermediate" appellate court between the circuit courts and the Supreme Court. Jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals is established by state law, but its practice and procedure is governed by Supreme Court Rules.

Judges of the Court of Appeals are chosen in non-partisan elections from districts drawn on county lines. The districts are as nearly as possible of equal population. The Legislature may increase the number of judges and alter the districts from which they are elected by changing the state law. A candidate for the Court of Appeals must be a lawyer, under 70 years of age, a qualified elector, and a resident of the district in which the candidate is running.

Court of Appeals Judges are elected for six-year terms. Their salaries are set by the Legislature. Every three years a Chief Judge is selected by the Court of Appeals Judges. In addition to hearing cases, the Chief Judge performs administrative duties and other assignments required by the Supreme Court.

Panels of Court of Appeals Judges hear cases in Lansing, Detroit, Grand Rapids, and Marquette. The panels are rotated to encourage statewide uniformity in rulings by eliminating the likelihood of conflicting legal philosophies developing in specific geographical areas. The procedure for hearing cases is similar to that of the Supreme Court. The decision of a panel of the Court of Appeals is final except in those cases which the Supreme Court reviews.

The Court of Appeals hears civil and criminal cases. Persons convicted of criminal offenses have an appeal as a matter of right under the State Constitution.

Activities and Workload

In 1986, there were 7,966 cases filed with the Court of Appeals. This represents an increase of 7.1% over the 7,436 cases filed in 1985 and a 645.0% increase over the 1,235 cases filed in 1965 (see Figure 2.1).

In 1986, the Court of Appeals disposed of 6,573 cases. This represents an increase of 4.2% over the 6,308 cases disposed in 1985 and a 1,023.8% increase in the number of cases disposed in 1965 (see Figure 2.2).

In 1986, 41.3% (2,715) of the dispositions were by orders and 58.7% (3,858) were by opinions (see Table 2.1). The percentage of cases which are disposed of by opinion has grown from 51.7% in 1978 to the current 58.7%.

The average number of cases filed in the Court of Appeals per judge has increased over the years. In 1986, there was an average of 442.6 cases filed per judge while in 1965 there were only 137.2 filings per judge on the average (see Figure 2.3 and Table 2.2). The number of judges increased from 9 in 1965 to 12 in 1969 and to the current 18 in 1975.

The averages for new filings per judge do not reflect the impact of the temporary assignments of judges to a court or the temporary assignment of a court's judge(s) to another court. Further, the averages do not reflect the impact of varying administrative workload requirements, including such matters as supervision of multi-site offices, travel to multiple court locations, etc. Therefore, great care should be exercised in the use or analysis of these averages.

The Constitution
State of Michigan
Article VI Sec. 11

"The state shall be divided into judicial circuits along county lines in each of which there shall be elected one or more circuit judges as provided by law. Sessions of the circuit court shall be held at least four times in each year in every county organized for judicial purposes. Each circuit judge shall hold court in the county or counties within the circuit in which he is elected, and in other circuits as may be provided by rules of the supreme court. The number of judges shall be changed and circuits shall be created, altered and discontinued on recommendation of the supreme court to reflect changes in judicial activity. No change in the number of judges or alteration or discontinuance of a circuit shall have the effect of removing a judge from office during his term."

CIRCUIT COURT

The State is divided into judicial circuits along county lines. The number of judges within a circuit is established by the Legislature to accommodate required judicial activity. In multi-county circuits judges travel from one county to another to hold court sessions.

The Circuit Court is referred to as the trial court of general jurisdiction in Michigan because of its very broad powers. The Circuit Court has jurisdiction over all actions except those given by state law to another court. Generally speaking, the Circuit Court has original jurisdiction in all civil cases involving more than $10,000, in all criminal cases where the offense involves a felony or certain serious misdemeanors, and in all domestic relations cases, including divorce and paternity actions.

The Circuit Court also hears cases appealed from lower courts and from some administrative agencies of state government. In addition, the Circuit Court has superintending control over other courts within the judicial circuit, subject to final superintending controls of the Supreme Court.

The Recorder's Court is a special court, established in 1857, which currently has jurisdiction in all felony criminal cases arising within the City of Detroit. For purposes of caseload activity and analysis, the Recorder's Courtis merged with the 3rd Circuit Court.

During 1986, the Recorder's Court and 3rd Circuit Court began an "administrative unification" in which all felony cases in Wayne County will be tried in Recorder's Court facilities. On a rotating basis, five Wayne County Circuit Judges will be assigned to hear felony cases in the Recorder's Court. Since seven to nine Wayne Circuit Judges have been assigned to felony cases in the past, this program will allow two to four additional judges to be assigned to hear civil cases in Wayne County. In addition, Wayne County District and Recorder's Court Judges were assigned some civil cases from the Wayne County Circuit Court to assist in reducing civil case inventories in that court early in 1986.

Circuit Judges are elected for terms of six years at non-partisan elections. A candidate must be a qualified elector, a resident of the judicial circuit, a lawyer and under 70 years of age. The Legislature sets salaries for circuit judges, which may be supplemented by counties.

Caseload

There were 197,537 new cases filed in Michigan circuit courts in 1986. Of these new cases, 9,954 (5.0%) were appeals, 90,953 (46.0%) involved domestic relations, 54,425 (27.6%) concerned civil matters, 41,751 (21.1%) concerned criminal matters, and 814 (0.4%) were Court of Claims cases (see Figure 3.1).

Between 1985 and 1986 total new cases filed increased by 4.7% (+8,868). Appeals cases decreased by 1.6% (-159), domestic relations actions decreased by .02% (-181), civil cases increased by 10.8% (+5,321), criminal cases increased by 9.4% (+3,571), and Court of Claims cases increased by 54.5% (+287).

The majority of the appeals filed concerned state agency decisions (6,257 or 62.9%). Twelve percent (11.6%) concerned civil matters, 6.5% concerned criminal matters, and 19.0% sought extraordinary writs (see Figure 3.2). Agency appeals decreased by 4.4% (-30) and extraordinary writs decreased by 4.3% (-85) while civil appeals increased by 7.5% (+81).

Of the 90,593 domestic relations filings, the majority (58.3%) involved divorce, 15.7% were support actions, 14.5% involved paternity, 6.9% involved URESA, and 4.6% involved other matters (see Figure 3.3). The majority of the divorce cases involved marriages with children (57.1%) while 42.9% involved no children. Between 1985 and 1986 the number of new cases in domestic categories remained relatively stable; divorce cases +26, paternity -43, URESA -58, support -134, and other +28.

Nearly half (49.7%) of the 54,425 civil filings involved damage (tort) suits while 48.4% were general civil, and 1.9% involved other issues (see Figure 3.4). Of the damage suits, 34.7% concerned automobile negligence.

Ninety percent (90.0%) of the criminal filings involved non-capital offenses (see Figure 3.5). Between 1985 and 1986 capital criminal cases decreased by 2.8% (-119) and non-capital criminal cases increased by 10.9% (+3,717).

The average number of new filings per judge on a statewide basis in 1986 was 1,008 (see Table 3.1). This represents an average increase of 45 cases per judge from 1985 when the average was 963. Five year trends in new filings are displayed in Figure 3.6 and Table 3.2.

The averages for new filings per judge do not reflect the impact of the temporary assignments of judges to a court or the temporary assignment of a court's judge(s) to another court. Further, the averages do not reflect the impact of varying administrative workload requirements, including such matters as supervision of multi-site offices, travel to multiple court locations, etc. Therefore, great care should be exercised in the use or analysis of these averages.

At the end of 1986 there were 152,273 cases pending in Circuit Court (see Table 3.3). Of these 4.1% (6,255) were appeals, 37.9% (57,769) were domestic cases, 46.9% (71,395) were civil cases, 10.0% (15,183) were criminal cases, and 1.1% (1,671) were Court of Claims cases (see Figure 3.7).

COURT OF CLAIMS

The Court of Claims, established by the legislature, became a function of the 30th Judicial Circuit Court (Ingham County) in 1979. The jurisdiction of the Court of Claims, except as otherwise provided by law, extends over claims and demands against the State of any of its departments, commissions, boards, institutions, arms or agencies, except those arising from line-of-duty injuries to State employees. Claimants may bring suit in the Court of Claims provided the claim is $1,000 or more. The State Court Administrative Board is vested with discretionary authority in claims under $1,000.

Activities and Workload

Significant changes and accomplishments occurred in the Court of Claims in 1986. Early in the year, a computerized docketing system was implemented. All pending cases were entered on the system resulting in wider access to case information by all court personnel. At the same time an automated blind-draw judge assignment and case number system was also put in place.

Changes in malpractice liability laws that became effective October 1 placing caps on jury awards resulted in a record number of cases filed in September (206) in anticipation of the changes. Approximately half of those cases (99) were filed in the last two days of the month.

Perhaps the most significant change for the Court of Claims in 1986 was the increased use of mediation. Prior to 1986 mediation was infrequently used. However, all cases are now automatically referred shortly after filing. See Table 3.4 for an illustration of the increase in mediation.

A strong judicial commitment was made to implement the Supreme Court recommended case processing time standards. A delay reduction plan has been established and caseflow management techniques applied to Court of Claims cases within the 30th Circuit Court. Many older cases have now been disposed or action taken to facilitate their disposition. It is anticipated that the age of cases from filing to disposition will continue to decrease as the delay reduction plan and caseflow management techniques become institutionalized.

Additionally, initial efforts were begun to determine the status of Court of Claims cases consolidated with cases in other circuit courts. It is anticipated that the number of pending cases will diminish as unreported disposed cases are identified and reported.

Table 3.5 represents the caseload summary for the year 1986. Significantly, a 63% increase was seen in the number of cases commenced in 1986 resulting in a 21% increase in the number of pending cases. The increase in new cases resulted in part from the change in malpractice libability laws limiting jury awards. However, an increase was also demonstrated throughout the year.

See Figure 3.8 for a representation of yearly case filings for a ten year period.

In 1987 it is planned to 1) reduce the number and age of pending cases by following the implemented delay reduction plan and continuing to apply recognized caseflow management techniques; 2) improve the reporting of activity and/or disposition of Court of Claims cases consolidated with other Circuit Court cases; and 3) expand the use of automation in docketing, scheduling, and tracking of Court of Claims cases and in generation of statistical information for reporting purposes.

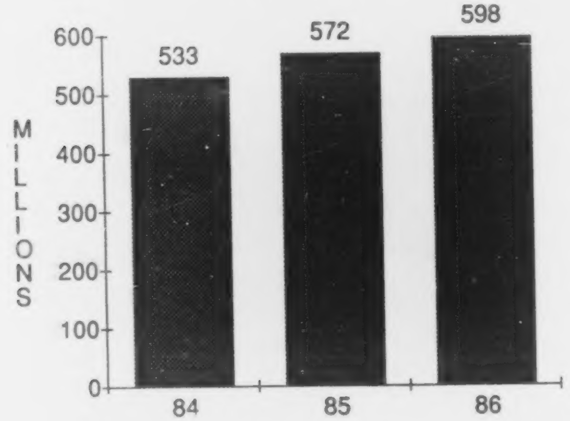
FRIEND OF THE COURT

In 1986, over $598 million in child and spousal support were collected by the Friend of the Court (see Figure 3.9). This represents an increase of $26 million (4.5%) from 1985 and an increase of $65 million (12.2%) from 1984.

FIGURE 3.9: TRENDS IN FRIEND OF THE COURT SUPPORT COLLECTIONS



NOTE: SUPPORT IS CHILD OR SPOUSAL

In 1986, $129 million (21.6%) in support collections were in cases involving ADC recipients while $469 million (78.4%) in support collections were in non-ADC recipient cases (see Figure 3.10). Through interception of State and Federal tax returns to delinquent payers, $27 million were collected (see Figure 3.11). This represents an increase of $3 million (12.5%) from 1985.

NOTE: SUPPORT COLLECTED VIA STATE AND FEDERAL TAX INTERCEPTS

Friend of the Court offices generated over $39 million in revenue in 1986 - nearly 5 million for the County Friend of the Court Funds (12.1%) and over $34 million (87.9%) for County General Funds (see Figure 3.12).

The County Friend of the Court Fund, created by the Legislature in 1983, receives special fees relating to services provided by the Friend of the Court prior to entry of judgment in divorce cases and incentive payments received from the state for collection of child support in ADC recipient cases.

The County General Fund receives statutory service fees for collecting child support, federal incentive payments for collection of child support, and Cooperative Reimbursement payments through contractual agreements with the Office of Child Support within the Department of Social Services.

The Friend of the Court caseload for 1986 was 698,234 (see Figure 3.13). This represents an increase of 59,586 cases (9.3%) from 1985 and an increase of 109,086 cases (18.5%) from 1984. A Friend of the Court case includes domestic relations matters where the Friend of the Court currently is providing or may be required to produce services relating to child custody and visitation and collection and enforcement of support obligations.

Friend of the Court staff increased 4.8% from 1,321 in 1985 to 1,384 in 1986 (see Figure 3.14). Increases in caseload, therefore, outpaced increases in Friend of the Court staff. In 1985 there were 483 cases per Friend of the Court staff person while in 1986 there were 505 cases per Friend of the Court staff person (see Figure 3.15).

DISTRICT COURT

The District Court, with which more citizens have contact than any other court, has exclusive jurisdiction of all civil litigation up to $10,000; all misdemeanors where potential punishment does not exceed one year in jail; and the arraignment, setting, and acceptance of bail and conduct of preliminary examinations in felony cases. The District Court also handles garnishments as well as eviction proceedings, land contract and mortgage foreclosures, and other proceedings. Juries in District Court are limited to six members. In civil cases five of six jurors must agree on a verdict while in criminal cases verdicts must be unanimous.

A small claims division for civil cases up to $1,500 is provided for in District Court. In these cases litigants agree to waive their right to a jury, rules of evidence, representation by a lawyer, and the right to appeal from the District Judge's decision. Small claims cases may also be heard by Attorney Magistrates whose decisions become final if not appealed to a District Judge within seven days. If either party objects, the case will be heard by the general division of the District Court. Traffic bureaus may also be set up in District Court to handle traffic offenses.

In single-judge districts the judge may appoint one magistrate for each county in the district. The magistrate may or may not be a lawyer. Powers of magistrates are limited to setting bail and accepting bond in criminal matters; they may accept guilty pleas and may sentence for traffic, motor carrier, and snowmobile violations and dog, game, and boat law violations. The magistrate may issue arrest warrants upon the authorization of the prosecutor or municipal attorney and may issue search warrants when authorized by the District Judge. Attorney Magistrates may hear small claims cases and may, at the direction of the Chief Judge, perform other duties allowed by statute.

District Court, established by the Legislature in 1968, became a court of record in 1973 and a verbatim record is kept of court proceedings. All appeals from District Court decisions are made to Circuit Court.

District Judges are elected on non-partisan ballots for terms of six years. Qualifications are the same as for other judges. The Legislature sets their salaries, which may be supplemented by local governments.

Caseload

In 1986, there were 2,764,018 new cases filed in Michigan district courts. This represents an increase of 391,422 filings or 16.5% from the previous year. Seventy-seven percent (77.0%) of the 1986 filings were traffic related, 13.2% concerned civil issues, and 9.8% concerned criminal issues (see Figure 4.1).

Criminal filings increased by 24,034 or 9.8% between 1985 and 1986. Of the 270,115 criminal cases filed in 1986, 77.3% were misdemeanor offenses and 22.7% were felony offenses (see Figure 4.2). Between 1985 and 1986, criminal felony cases increased by 11.9% (6,513) and criminal misdemeanor cases increased by 9.2% (17,521).

Traffic filings increased by 378,736 or 21.7% between 1985 and 1986. Of the 2,127,831 traffic cases in 1986, 72.6% were civil infractions and 27.4% were misdemeanors (see Figure 4.3). Traffic misdemeanor cases increased by 14.7% (74,706) while traffic civil cases increased by 24.5% (304,030).

Civil filings increased 47,067, from 319,005 in 1985 to 366,072 in 1986, for an increase of 14.8%. Thirty-nine percent (39.4%) of the civil filings were general civil cases, 31.3% were summary proceedings cases, and 29.3% were small claims cases (see Figure 4.4). Civil matters increased by 14.3% (18,085), small claims increase by 20.5% (18,202), and summary proceedings increased by 10.4% (10,780) from the previous year.

In 1986 an average of 11,100 new cases per judge were filed in district court. This represents an increase of 1,495 from 1985 when the average filings per judge was 9,605. Table 4.1 displays the average number of filings per judge for 1986 by district.

The averages for new filings per judge do not reflect the impact of the temporary assignments of judges to a court or the temporary assignment of a court's judge(s) to another court. Further, the averages do not reflect the impact of varying administrative workload requirements, including such matters as supervision of multi-site offices, travel to multiple court locations, etc. Therefore, great care should be exercised in the use or analysis of these averages.

Between 1982 and 1986 the number of cases filed in district court increased from 1,812,610 to 2,764,018 for an increase of 951,408 cases or 52.5% (see Figure 4.5). The number of cases filed by district for the years 1982 through 1986 are displayed in Table 4.2.

At the end of 1986 there were 1,293,900 cases pending in District Court (see Table 4.3). Of these, 81.7% (1,056,898) were traffic cases, 9.8% (126,561) were criminal cases, and 8.5% (110,441) were civil cases (see Figure 4.6).

MUNICIPAL COURT

Municipal Court jurisdiction is limited to $1,500 in civil cases. Criminal jurisdiction is the same as District Court jurisdiction. Only a few municipalities have chosen to retain Municipal Court rather than to change to the District Court.

Municipal Judges must be lawyers, residents, and electors of their municipalities. They are paid by the municipalities and are elected for six-year terms.

Activities and Workload

In 1986 there were 33,893 new cases filed in Michigan municipal courts. This represents an increase of 26.2% (+7,029) cases from 1985. The majority of the 1986 new filings were traffic cases (87.9%) while 8.7% were criminal cases and 3.3% were civil cases (see Figure 4.7). Between 1985 and 1986 criminal filings increased by 25.7% (+606), traffic filings increased by 27.3% (+6,833), and civil filings increased by 7.8% (+85).

Of the 2,965 criminal filings in 1986, 85.7% (2,542) were misdemeanors and 14.3% (423) were felonies (see Figure 4.8). In 1986 criminal felony filings increased by 83.1% (192) from 1985 and criminal misdemeanor filings increased by 19.5% (414).

In 1986 there were 29,800 traffic related cases filed. Civil violations accounted for 55.0% (16,378) of the traffic filings while misdemeanor offenses accounted for 45.0% (13,422) of the traffic filings (see Figure 4.9). Misdemeanor traffic offenses increased by 52.8% (+4,640) from 1985 while civil traffic offenses increased by 11.9% (+1,748).

Of the 1,128 civil cases filed in 1986, 64.0% (722) were general civil cases, 20.2% (228) were small claims, and 15.8% (178) involved summary proceedings (see Figure 4.10). Between 1985 and 1986 civil offenses increased by 5.9% (+43), small claims increased by 1.8% (+4), and summary cases increased by 27.1% (+38).

In 1986 there were an average of 5,650 new filings for each judge in Municipal Court. This represents an average increase of 1,173 new filings per judge more than 1985 when there were an average of 4,477 filings per judge.

The averages for new filings per judge do not reflect the impact of the temporary assignments of judges to a court or the temporary assignment of a court's judge(s) to another court. Further, the averages do not reflect the impact of varying administrative workload requirements, including such matters as supervision of multi-site offices, travel to multiple court locations, etc. Therefore, great care should be exercised in the use or analysis of these averages.

At the end of 1986 there were 4,577 cases pending in Municipal Court (see Table 4.4). Of these 69.5% (3,183) were traffic cases, 17.4% (796) were criminal cases, and 13.1% (598) were civil cases (see Figure 4.11).

PROBATE COURT

There is a Probate Court in each Michigan county, with the exception of eight counties which have consolidated to form four Probate Court districts. Each district has one judge, and each of the remaining counties has one or more judges, depending upon the population of the county.

The Probate Court is a court of original jurisdiction. It exercises exclusive jurisdiction in such matters as juvenile delinquency, neglect, abuse, and adoption proceedings. Another major function is the court's supervision of "probating" of wills and of the administration of estates and trusts of deceased persons by personal representatives.

The Probate Court also hears cases pertaining to condemnation of land, guardianships and the commitment for hospital care of mentally ill persons, the mentally handicapped, and addicted persons.

The Probate Court's juvenile division is commonly known as Juvenile Court and handles cases of families and children under the age of 17 who are delinquent or neglected and abused.

Probate Judges are elected on a nonpartisan ballot for a six-year term, subject to the same requirements as other judges. The Legislature sets their salaries.

Activites and Workload - Probate Division

In 1986, 63,627 new cases were filed in probate court, exclusive of juvenile matters. This represents an increase of 0.7% from the 63,157 new cases filed the previous year. Supervised and independent estates, guardianships, conservatorships, mentally ill petitions, and adoptions constitute most of the new probate cases (see Figure 5.1). New cases involving supervised decedent estates were down 2.7% from 14,125 in 1985 to 13,749 in 1986. However, cases involving independent decedent estates were up 21.6% from 6,765 in 1985 to 8,227 in 1986. There were increases in testamentary trusts (10.7%), guardianships (9.6%), conservatorships (6.5%), adoptions (5.5%), and escheated property (42.5%). New cases decreased in the areas of inter vivos trusts (-24.1%), guardianships of developmentally disabled persons (-6.2%), and mentally ill petitions (15.6%).

In addition to new cases the probate courts reported 70,807 activities, an increase of 5.4% from 1985 (see Figure 5.2). Trust registration and wills for safekeeping (32,588), assignments of property under $5,000 (6,885), and acknowledgements of paternity (18,847) formed the largest groups of activities. Acknowledgements of paternity increased by 15.8% (+2,576) in 1985.

The average number of new cases filed per probate judge in 1986 was 595 and the average number of reported activities per judge was 772 (exclusive of juvenile caseload). Table 5.1 displays the average number of new filings per judge for each probate court in Michigan. The five year history of probate court filings is displayed in Figure 5.3. Individual data for probate courts is reported in Table 5.2.

The averages for new filings per judge do not reflect the impact of the temporary assignments of judges to a court or the temporary assignment of a court's judge(s) to another court. Further, the averages do not reflect the impact of varying administrative workload requirements, including such matters as supervision of multi-site offices, travel to multiple court locations, etc. Therefore, great care should be exercised in the use or analysis of these averages.

At the end of 1986 there were 148,238 cases pending in Probate Court (see Table 5.3 and Figure 5.4). Of these 29.8% (44,195) were guardianship cases, 24.0% (35,519) concerned supervised decedent estates, 21.0% (31,105) concerned conservatorships, 9.1% (13,481) concerned independent decedent estates, and 8.7% (12,903) concerned guardianships of developmentally disabled persons. The remaining cases concerned inter vivos trusts, testamentary trusts, adoptions, and escheated property.

Activities and Workload - Juvenile Division

At the beginning of the 1986 year there were 23,376 individuals under court supervision (see Table 5.4). Of these cases 46.0% were for formal delinquency, 35.3% were for formal neglect/abuse, 17.7% were for informal delinquency, and 1.0% were for informal neglect/abuse (see Figure 5.5).

During 1986 there were 28,417 new cases in the Juvenile Division. Of these, 44.1% were formal delinquency, 16.8% were formal neglect/abuse, 36.5% were informal delinquency, and 2.6% were informal neglect/abuse (see Figure 5.6).

Nearly twenty-seven thousand cases (26,857) were disposed in 1986. Of the cases disposed, 43.9% were formal delinquency, 15.9% were formal neglect/abuse, 37.9% were informal delinquency, and 2.3% were informal neglect/abuse (see Figure 5.7).

At the end of 1986, there were 24,936 cases under court jurisdiction. Forty-six percent (46.1%) were formal delinquency, 35.2% were formal neglect/abuse, 17.3% were informal delinquency, and 1.4% were informal neglect/abuse (see Figure 5.8).

In addition to formal and informal caseloads, Juvenile Divisions conducted a number of activities (see Figure 5.9). Nearly thirteen thousand (12,927) individuals were served through formal diversion programs. There were 12,810 traffic and ordinance hearings and 120 waiver hearings. Over eight thousand (8,347) individuals were not accepted for court services for delinquency and 538 were not accepted for court services for neglect/abuse.

State Court

STATE COURT ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE

According to the Michigan Constitution, Article VI, Section 3, ". . . the Supreme Court shall appoint an administrator of the courts and other assistants of the Supreme Court as may be necessary to aid in the administration of the Court's of the State. The administrator shall perform administrative duties assigned by the court. Under the general direction of the Supreme Court, the State Court Administrative Office is responsible in assisting in the administration of justice in Michigan's trial courts. The State Court Administrator is also responsible for advising the Supreme Court, as well as the executive and legislative branches, on matters relating to management of the State's One Court of Justice."

Specifically, the State Court Administrative Office provides technical assistance to over 550 judges of 241 trial courts and trial court staff on matters relating to trial court management. This function is inherent in the role of the State Court Administrative Office and consumes a majority of the resources of the State Court Administrative Office.

The State Court Administrative Office assists in the evaluation of court rules and legislation affecting administration of courts, and proposes changes to rules and statutes where appropriate.

The Michigan Judicial Data Center, (JDC), a division of the State Court Administrative Office, advises and assists trial courts in the selection, acquisition, installation, programming, and operation of automated data processing systems. The JDC maintains on-line data processing services for District and Probate Courts and provides software development and enhancement services for all trial courts. In 1986, the JDC implemented a new automated circuit court case management and records/information management system in the 18th Circuit Court in Bay County. The system will be implemented in other circuits in 1987.

The Friend of the Court Bureau is established in the State Court Administrative Office pursuant to the Friend of the Court Act, 1983 PA 294. The Bureau provides technical assistance to circuit judges and local friend of the court offices on domestic relations matters, and is responsible for the development of child support and visitation guidelines, development of recommended procedures for friend of the court offices, training of local trial court personnel, publication of information regarding child support and friend of the court matters for attorneys, litigants, and the general public, and for staff support to the Friend of the Court Advisory Committee.

The Foster Care Review Board program was established in 1980 as a pilot pro gram to be administered by the State Court Administrative Office. In 1984, the Legislature approved continuation of the project, and in 1986 enacted 1986 PA 159, which extends the program for an additional three years and provides specific criteria for the creation of local foster care review boards. Local foster care review boards, comprised of volunteer citizens, review efforts by the juvenile courts, Department of Social Services, and private children's agencies to establish and carry out plans for permanent placement of children in foster care. A statewide volunteer Advisory Committee uses data collected at the local level to advocate for the necessary resources and system modifications to ensure the quality and consistency of placement services for children statewide.

The Felony Sentencing Guidelines project is administered by the State Court Administrative Office with the guidance of the Sentencing Guidelines Advisory Committee. Under the project, guidelines for use by trial judges in sentencing persons convicted of felonies are formulated by the Advisory Committee based on statutory sentencing limits and on data regarding statewide sentencing practices. Trial judges who deviate from the guidelines must indicate their reasons "on the record". Data regarding the sentencing of every convicted felon is collected and analyzed by the State Court Administrative Office staff for review in aggregate by the Advisory Committee.

Regional Offices of the State Court Administrative Office are located in Detroit, Lansing, Mt. Pleasant, and Traverse City. For trial courts located within their respective regions, they provide technical, administrative, management assistance; facilitate communication among trial courts and between trial courts and the State Court Administrative Office and Supreme Court; implement policies of the Supreme Court and the State Court Administrative Office; oversee the management of caseflow and the administration of judicial assignments; resolve disputes between trial courts and their funding units; respond to complaints from other agencies and the public regarding trial court operations; and advise the State Court Administrator on matters relating to judicial administration.

In 1985, the current regional program was strengthened after three of the five regional offices were closed in 1981. The regional program is a key element in the implementation of the Supreme Court's program to improve Michigan Courts.

The State Court Administrative Office also operates the Judicial Assignment Program, the Docket Control Center of the Detroit Recorder's Court; manages judicial elections; collects and analyzes trial court workload and other statistics; advises the Supreme Court on administrative matters; operates a court reporting and recording certification program; calls and manages judicial conferences; develops and maintains manuals for trial courts; develops and enhances forms and manuals for use in trial courts; and performs other functions relating to the administration of the courts.

CITIZENS' COMMISSION TO IMPROVE MICHIGAN COURTS

The Citizens' Commission to Improve Michigan Courts was formed January, 1986 by the Supreme Court. The Commission was directed to recommend to the court ways in which the court system may be made more readily accessible and more responsive to the needs of the citizens and Michigan.

The Commission gathered information in a variety of ways. The Commission divided itself into three committees; one focusing on civil and family matters, one focusing on criminal and delinquency matters, and one examining the general relationship of the court and the community. Approximately 50 experts from a wide variety of fields were invited to share with the committees their information and opinions. The Commission conducted five public hearings at sites in the upper and lower peninsulas.

The product of the Commission's study is a set of 50 recommendations for improving the court system. Forty-five of the Commission's recommendations are directed to the Supreme Court. The remaining five are directed to the Legislature. In October, 1986 the report was submitted to the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court, with the assistance of the State Court Administrative Office and others, is developing a plan for implementing many of the recommendations. The Probate Court Task Force was established by the Supreme Court in May, 1986 under the supervision of Justice Dorothy Comstock Riley. The task force was charged with looking at the role and structure of the juvenile justice system in Michigan and to determine the appropriate roles and functions of the juvenile court in the delivery of service to children and families.

TASK FORCE ON PROBATE COURT CERTIFICATION OF FOSTER HOMES AND MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICES OF JUVENILE DETENTION FACILITIES

The Task Force was established by Chief Justice G. Mennen Williams and Dr. Agnes Mansour, Director of the Michigan Department of Social Services, to consider two issues and to develop recommendations which would ameliorate current problems attendant to these issues. The issues considered were: 1) the certification of probate court (juvenile division) foster homes to the Michigan Department of Social Services for licensure in view of the 1982 state appellate court decision determining probate courts not to be child care organizations as defined by 1973 PA 116; and 2) the inspection criteria used by the Michigan Department of Social Services to evaluate juvenile detention facilities and the current administrative rules to reflect the variety of child care residential facilities which are presently operated by probate courts. The report of the Task Force was completed and submitted to the Supreme Court in February, 1986. Local court representatives and other professionals who served on the Task Force in 1985 include:

MICHIGAN APPELLATE ASSIGNED COUNSEL SYSTEM

The Appellate Defender Commission is mandated by statute to develop a statewide indigent appellate defense system which includes the services of both the State Appellate Defender Office (SADO) and private, assigned counsel [MCL 780.712; MSA 28.1114(102)]. The Michigan Appellate Assigned Counsel System (MAACS) was created to fulfill that mandate.

Although 75% of all indigent felony appeals are handled by private assigned counsel, until the advent of MAACS, no uniform statewide method of qualifying and selecting those attorneys existed. Each jurisdiction had its own method of appointing appellate counsel and of paying them from county funds. The result was wide disparity in the quality of representation provided.

The statute requires the Commission to compile and keep current a statewide roster of attorneys eligible for and willing to accept appointment as criminal appellate defense counsel, and to provide continuing legal education for those attorneys. MAACS is the administrative office which screens the qualifications of attorneys seeking to join the statewide roster, compiles local lists of roster attorneys willing to accept appointments in circuit courts and the Recorder's Court, provides training programs and resource materials to roster attorneys, and monitors compliance with the Minimum Standards for Indigent Criminal Appellate Defense Services approved by the Michigan Supreme Court.

Pursuant to its statutory mandate to develop a comprehensive service delivery system, the Commission adopted regulations designed to insure that appellate assignments are fairly distributed among qualified lawyers and that private assigned counsel remain professionally independent. MAACS monitors the process by which appellate counsel are selected in each jurisdiction, the distribution of cases among private counsel, and the allocation of cases between private counsel and SADO.

MAACS also opens manual and computer files for each appeal assigned to private counsel. Individually, the case files permit accurate responses to inquiries about particular cases or about the performance of roster attorneys. Collectively, the files provide a source of centralized data about appellate assignments previously unavailable.

Because appellate counsel fees are still set and paid at the county level, MAACS has no responsibility for paying private counsel.

Activities

MAACS first opened its doors on May 1, 1985. The new appellate assignment system officially became effective on December 2, 1985. Thus, 1986 was the first full year of operation for the new system.

By year end, fifty of fifty-six jurisdictions were selecting appellate counsel according to the rotation method described in the MAACS regulations. No circuit any longer used the contract method of assigning all its appeals to a single attorney for a set annual fee. The services of SADO were more evenly distributed among counties around the state than they had ever been. Three hundred and forty-eight attorneys were on the state-wide roster. No circuit had too few lawyers to handle its appeals, or was without attorneys qualified to handle its more serious cases.

Beyond implementing the new appellate assignment procedures, MAACS made progress toward other goals in 1986. In addition to periodically presenting the basic orientation program required for Level I lawyers, a format was developed for utilizing funding from the Justice Training Commission to enhance the ability of roster attorneys to provide competent appellate representation. Each spring and fall, a one day program will be presented at four locations convenient for lawyers around the state. In Spring, 1986, the topic was guilty plea appeals. In Fall, 1986, the topic was search and seizure. In addition, a series of single topic reference manuals, convenient for research use by both novice and experienced appellate practitioners, is being published. So far, the topics have included felony sentencing, guilty plea appeals, search and seizure, and effective assistance of counsel.

Compliance with the Minimum Standards was promoted through responses to inquiries from both attorneys and clients.

One of MAACS' first tasks was to obtain and disseminate information about each circuit's appellate assigned counsel payment rates. Both judges and lawyers were anxious to learn where their jurisdictions stood. Because appellate counsel are appointed and paid at the trial court level centralized information-gathering by MAACS is critical. Many appellate assignments, especially those involving guilty pleas, do not result in a Court of Appeals file being opened because the case is disposed of in some manner in the trial court. Moreover, the Court of Appeals does not collect data about some matters which affect the quality and total cost of indigent appellate defense representation, such as client visits, attorney hours worked, fees and expenses.

To promote the collection of accurate data, MAACS has worked with the State Court Administrative Office (SCAO) on developing new forms, including a new order for appellate appointments. In contrast to the orders commonly used now, which often reveal only the name and docket number of the case and the name of the attorney being appointed, the new orders will reveal information about the offense, the sentence, and the transcripts to be prepared; which is needed by everyone involved in processing an appeal.

MAACS has also worked with SCAO to develop a standardized fee voucher to be completed by roster attorneys in every case. The use of uniform statements of services by all appellate assigned counsel in all circuits, which began in Setpember, 1986, should prove convenient for both the lawyers who prepare them and the judges and trial court personnel who must review them. More importantly, the vouchers will reflect the hours worked at various tasks, the amount of payment requested, and the amount actually received. When sufficient data have been accumulated by MAACS, they will provide the basis for making accurate projections about the costs involved in state funding of appellate assigned counsel fees. The vouchers will also permit the development of payment guidelines for particular types of cases so that requests for payment can be assessed for reasonableness.

Workload Analysis

The MAACS staff currently consists of three people - an administrator, who is an experienced appellate attorney, an administrative assistant, and a secretary. The workload falls primarily into six areas.

Maintaining Attorney Roster - Attorneys can join or leave both the state-wide roster and particular local lists at will. Therefore, maintaining the roster involves several steps. When an application is determined to be complete, the lawyer is classified as Level I or Level II based on experience. The trial courts whose lists the lawyer wishes to join are notified. The lawyer receives a confirmation letter and various reference materials.

Thereafter the appropriate trial courts are notified when the lawyer's address or level changes, when the lawyer adds or deletes a local list, and when the lawyer decides to leave the statewide roster altogether. Although the majority of roster attorneys signed up in Fall, 1985, movement on and off the roster occurs regularly. Thus, while the roster grew by a total of 69 lawyers, this resulted from 113 additions and 44 deletions. Other changes in a lawyer's situation, which may require sending notices to numerous circuit courts, occur almost daily.

Monitoring Assignment Process - Each trial court forwards to MAACS copies of its petitions for appellate counsel and orders of appointment. Each court also supplies a monthly log sheet which reflects the order in which cases were distributed to roster attorneys and to SADO. The log sheets permit MAACS to determine whether a circuit court is rotating its list according to the regulations and to help circuit courts in correcting good faith errors. MAACS review has also occasionally caught other important mistakes, such as failure to notify attorneys of their appointments.

Maintaining Case Files - The orders and petitions supplied by the trial court are used by MAACS to open individual case files. Each original order is treated as one case, without regard to subsequent amendments and substitutions. Briefs and fee vouchers, which roster attorneys are required to supply, are added to the files thereafter, as is any correspondence regarding the case. Complete files are not kept by MAACS on SADO cases. To avoid duplication of effort in regard to case information, arrangements are currently being made for the automated transfer of selected Court of Appeals docket entries to MAACS' data base.

In 1986, MAACS received orders of appointment in 3,269 cases. Of these, 701 were assigned to SADO, and 2,568 were assigned to private counsel. These figures do not reflect all the appellate appointments made, since, for most of the year several counties were winding down contracts and were not reporting to MAACS.

For a more accurate analysis of the total number of appellate assignments, which includes information from SADO and from former contract attorneys, see Figure 6.1.

The total number of appointments will not equal the total number of indigent criminal appeals processed by the Court of Appeals since some defendants dismiss their appeals and others obtain relief in the trial court and do not proceed further.

This total does, however, reflect with reasonable accuracy the number of cases in which counsel must be selected and paid.

Training and Resource Development - The development of training programs and publications constitute a substantial part of the MAACS workload. A two-day orientation program was presented at five locations between February and June, 1986 for a total of 104 participants. Spring and fall programs were presented at a total of seven locations for 164 participants. Apart from the time consumed by actual program presentation, substantial time is required for program planning and the preparation of handout materials.

Substantial additional time is invested in the publication of reference manuals, in the belief that a lawyer's ability to provide competent representation is greatly increased by the ready availability of research tools. Under the terms of the Justice Training Commission grant, these manuals are supplied free of charge to roster attorneys and SADO staff attorneys.

Data Collection and Analysis - Information from orders of appointment, briefs, and fee vouchers in every appeal assigned to private counsel is entered in an automated data base. The development of the data base has been slowed be several factors - the need to develop and disseminate appropriate forms for collecting data, the need to obtain cooperation from trial court personnel and roster attorneys in completing and submitting forms and other documents, the need to develop computer programs for processing the data, and the time required to complete an appeal. Therefore, detailed information about the types of cases being appealed, the number of attorney hours devoted to each type, and the costs involved is not yet available.

Requests for Assistance - MAACS received hundreds of requests for assistance from attorneys and inmates. The attorneys, who typically telephone, have questions ranging from how to comply with a court rule, to what a performance standard requires to what is the best way to frame an issue or relate to a given client. The inmates usually write letters either seeking information about appellate procedure or expressing dissatisfaction with their appointed counsel.

Complaints about roster attorneys must be investigated. Prompt response to inquiries and thorough investigation of client complaints has been hampered by limited staff size and the priority of other responsibilities.

Goals

The Michigan Appellate Assigned Counsel System's goals are to ensure that only qualified attorneys receive appellate appointments, that appointments are fairly distributed pursuant to objective criteria, and that the ability of private counsel to provide competent appellate representation is enhanced. As a new and very small agency, MAACS has a long way to go before those goals will be met.

An immediate priority for 1987 is to add two additional positions for an attorney and a secretary, to permit more refined evaluation of the qualifications of roster attorneys and more thorough investigation of complaints about attorney performance, and to handle an ever-increasing volume of paperwork.

A second high priority is to improve data collection and analysis techniques. This is particularly desirable in regard to assigned counsel costs, so that realistic assessments of the cost of state-funding can be made.

The final and most crucial goal for 1987 is to secure full compliance with the MAACS regulations by both roster attorneys and trial courts, so that any improvements made can accurately be said to encompass all assigned appeals in the state.

STATE APPELLATE DEFENDER OFFICE

The State Appellate Defender Office (SADO) was established in 1970 pursuant to Michigan Supreme Court Administrative Order 1970-1. Its purpose was to provide competent, quality legal representation of indigent criminal defendants in post-conviction matters. The Office currently operates pursuant to 1978 PA 620 (MCL 780.711 et seq.), which superceded Administrative Order 1970-1. The Office is governed by the seven-member State Appellate Defender Commission, which also oversees the private component of the Michigan Appellate Assigned Counsel System (MAACS).

Defender James R. Neuhard heads all operations of SADO, the public defender component of the State's assigned counsel system. The private roster component of the appellate assigned counsel system is administered by Barbara R. Levine. The Commission adopted regulations for operation of the system, and full operation of the mixed (public defender/private roster) representation scheme began on December 2, 1985.

Except in unusual situations, SADO is appointed to cases by Michigan's trial courts (the circuit courts, and the Recorder's Court for the City of Detroit) to represent indigent criminal defendants on felony appeals and a variety of other post-conviction proceedings. Infrequently, the Michigan Supreme Court and the Michigan Court of Appeals direct lower courts to appoint SADO.

SADO appears on the local assigned counsel roster in every third, fourth, or fifth slot, under the Commission's regulatory scheme, depending on the ratio of attorneys to the number of criminal felony appeals taken in the jurisdiction.

Thus, SADO may receive anywhere from one-third to one-fifth of the appellate assignments from a given jurisdiction, but no less than 25% of the State's total number of indigent felony appeals, which according to MAACS, was approximately 3,589 in 1986. According to SADO records, it accepted 741 of these assignments; MAACS puts the number even higher, at 755. SADO was not timely served with some Orders of Appointment. The private roster attorneys handle the remaining 75% of indigent criminal appeals.

Over the last nine years, SADO has accepted an average of over 700 cases a year. However, if MAACS figures are correct and the regulations are followed, the number of assignments to SADO will approach 900 next year. During 1986, SADO received appointments from all but four (4) of Michigan's Circuits, which included the following counties: Keweenaw, Baraga, Houghton, Sanilac, St. Joseph and Huron. These counties probably just did not have appeals to assign.

A SADO attorney's work consists of reviewing transcripts and lower court records, interviewing clients, investigating, searching issues, filing all necessary pleadings, and conducting hearings and oral arguments at all levels of the Michigan and Federal judiciaries. Attorneys make regular client visits and lower court appearances in all areas of this State, appear before the Michigan Supreme Court the Court of Appeals, and, in selected cases, before Michigan's federal district courts, the Federal Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit, and the United States Supreme Court.

During 1986, thirteen (13) staff attorneys, two research attorneys, the Defender, Chief Deputy Defender, Legal Resources Project Director, and Training Coordinator were housed in the Detroit office. Four staff attorneys and the Deputy Defender were housed in the Lansing office. These attorneys and administrators were supported by ten legal secretaries, an investigator and paralegal assistant, eight administrative assistants, two and one-half clerks, and one receptionist. Special assistant defenders, post-graduate legal research assistants, and part-time law students were employed as support. Pursuant to the long-standing arrangement between SADO and University of Michigan Law School, one SADO attorney was housed at and received clerical support from the Law School while teaching the Appellate Practice Course there.

Paralegal and criminal justice students from Michigan State University, Mercy College, Henry Ford College, and other schools provide paralegal-type assistance to the staff as they work for credit toward degrees. SADO also accepts volunteer referrals from school, government and civic organizations, and other criminal justice programs.

Activities and Workload Analysis

Case Activity

In 1986, SADO's eighteen (18) staff attorneys and two deputies handled a mixture of 498 new cases. The Special Unit attorneys took 163 permanent assignments and handled eight cases that were eventually assigned to others. The Unit is designed to provide expedited relief and to process a high volume of simple cases with similar issues. Unit attorneys handle twice as many cases as regular staff attorneys. SADO's 1986 request for an appropriation for another of these cost-effective Units was turned down by the Governor and the Legislature. Attorneys received a total of 661 new cases. Thirty-two of those appeals were special assignments (these range from United States Supreme Court briefs to responses to prosecutor appeals), 330 were pleas, and 299 were trials.

Between January 1, 1986 and December 31, 1986 SADO received 741 new assignments. At the close of the year, it had 1,100 open-active cases, had closed 665 cases, and processed some 1,765 cases. As expected, the adoption of the new guilty rule by the Michigan Supreme Court and appellate decisions requiring that most sentencing and plea-based post-conviction matters originate in the trial court substantially increased attorney travel time. Special Unit attorneys alone logged over 40,000 miles!

For years SADO had a standing offer to accept the most difficult and costly appeals to relieve the counties of the economic burden of paying the extraordinary costs often incurred for such cases, and because SADO is better equipped to handle them. In 1986, under MAACS regulatory scheme, counties systematically took advantage of that offer - the percentage of trial appeals assigned to SADO increased significantly over previous years. For the first time since such records started being kept, the number of trial appeal assignments exceeded plea assignments.

Collateral Activity and Special Projects

In addition to the above-described client services, the Office was involved in several collateral areas and special projects. The Legal Resources Project, in its ninth year, responded to more than 3,900 requests for assistance, provided more than 24,000 pages of materials, and reach more than 1,500 subscribers in 73 through the Criminal Defense Newsletter, in addition to providing support for the legal staff through advice and opinion summaries. These summaries were also made available to private criminal law practitioners, and 300 subscribed to the service. The Project's brief bank now has over 5,000 briefs.

In 1986, 834 copies of the 700-plus page Defender Trial Book, 3rd edition, and approximately 700 copies of the 1,200-plus page, two-volume, second edition of the Michigan Criminal Appeals manual, were distributed to attorneys, judges, legislators, libraries, criminal defendants, and others involved in the criminal justice process.

Michigan Justice Training funds obtained by SADO and the Criminal Defense Attorneys of Michigan enabled those two organizations to continue to conduct general training programs for attorneys representing indigent criminal defendants. Over 400 lawyers registered for seminars held in Detroit and Traverse City. One thousand copies of the materials developed for those seminars were distributed, and video and audio tapes of the events were loaned to interested persons and organizations. As in the past, SADO attorneys played a major role in CDAM and MAACS training programs.

A SADO staff attorney taught the Criminal Appellate Practice Course at the University of Michigan Law School again in 1986. Each semester 12 to 14 Course students worked on all facets of real appellate cases assigned to that teaching attorney in return for academic credits and the invaluable learning experience the Course offers. One SADO Course teacher wrote a book on teaching appellate practice while teaching the course.

Several SADO attorneys lectured at the Cooley Law School and supervised Cooley student interns and work-study students assigned to SADO's Lansing office. Negotiations for a course at the Wayne State University Law School modeled after the Michigan course are currently under way. Plans call for a pilot program there in the Summer of 1987, to be followed by a permanent course if it is successful.

The Special Projects Coordinator completed the computer user's guide for law firms she started writing for the Barrister Computer Company in 1985, and SADO will now begin to concentrate on making all its legal staff computer literate to maximize efficiency.

SADO attorneys were active at legislative hearings on matters relating to criminal justice, working with legislators and legislative committees on criminal law and corrections matters. They also served on many boards, commissions, committees, and task forces working on criminal justice programs at the state and national level. The Defender is the president-elect of the National Legal Aid and Defender Association and many SADO attorneys were faculty and participants in its activities.

Two very significant, seemingly contradictory, events occurred in 1986: in recognition of SADO's excellent performance, Harvard University and the Ford Foundation named SADO as one of 75 finalists in a National awards program for all forms of excellence in state and local governmental programs. Simultaneously, the Michigan Senate Subcommittee on General Government Appropriations ordered SADO to undergo a program review to see whether it was successfully meeting the goals it was established to achieve. SADO was not one of the ten finalists picked by the Harvard/Ford Innovations program, but it did survive a rigorous outcome analysis.

Goals

SADO's immediate goals are to secure the additional funding for personnel, equipment, and technology needed to maintain a staffed office of skilled lawyers who provide high-quality, cost-efficient representation in its 25% of the approximately 3,600 indigent appeals taken annually, and to effectively use the resources and materials generated by its operations to support the private component of Michigan now-integrated indigent appellate defense delivery system and the criminal defense bar in general.

In the upcoming year, SADO will again seek funding for an additional, cost-efficient specialized Unit, work for full state-funded lawyer compensation, publish training materials, practice and procedure books and manuals, distribute the Criminal Defense Newsletter and opinion summaries, and conduct and participate in training programs.

SADO will maintain its current presence in the Michigan and Cooley law schools and begin a teaching program at the Wayne State University Law School. These law school activities will improve the quality of practice of the graduates who participate in them and provide an excellent source for recruiting competent, inexpensive legal assistance.

Finally, SADO will continue to seek judicial decisions, legislation, and executive action that make the whole criminal justice process open, fair, expeditious, and cost-efficient.

ATTORNEY DISCIPLINE BOARD

The Michigan Attorney Discipline Board was created by the Michigan Supreme Court through an amendment to the Michigan General Court rules adding Chapter 95, effective October 1, 1978. The Discipline Board is the adjudicative arm of the Supreme Court for the discharge of its constitutional responsibility to supervise and discipline Michigan attorneys.

The Attorney Discipline Board consists of seven members who serve without compensation and are appointed as follows: three lawyers appointed by the Supreme Court; two public members (non-lawyers) appointed by the Supreme Court; and two lawyers appointed by the Board of Commissioners of the State Bar of Michigan.

On March 31, 1986, the Discipline Board appointed John F. VanBolt as Executive Director/General Counsel replacing John F. X. Dwaihy who returned to the private practice of law after serving in that position since October 1, 1978.

The Discipline Board role in these proceedings begins only after a grievance has been investigated by the Grievance Administrator and approved by the Attorney Grievance Commission for the filing of a formal complaint with the Board. Grievances against attorneys are confidential during the investigation stage; however, the formal complaint, pleadings, hearing transcript and orders are a matter of public record. All hearings conducted by the Attorney Discipline Board and its hearing panels are open to the public; notices of all Discipline Board and Panel hearings are routinely issued.

Most panel and all appeal hearings before the Board are conducted in the Board's hearing room at its offices in Detroit. Approximately one-third of the hearings are conducted by hearing panels in various other locations across the state. As appointees of the Discipline Board, approximately 250 Michigan attorneys serve as volunteers on the three-member panels, which act as the trial level of the Discipline Board's operation.

In addition to the assignment of complaints to hearing panels, the Board may on occasion refer a matter for examination by a special Master appointed by the Board; such action is taken when a pending complaint involves specialized questions of fact, or when a matter is of such complexity or volume that it requires exceptionally prolonged hearing time or expedited attention. Masters assist in the inquiry of the hearing panel of the Board and submit findings and recommendations to a whole panel or the Board for final decision and order. Masters, hearing panel members, and the members of the Discipline Board, collectively contribute thousands of volunteer hours of time each year.

The Hearing Panels of the Attorney Discipline Board may enter orders of dismissal, reprimand, suspension for a stated period of time or revocation of license (commonly referred to as disbarment). Discipline orders include assessment of a portion of the costs incurred by the Grievance Commission and Discipline Board.

The Hearing Panels may, under a rule effective February 3, 1981, place an attorney on probation with certain conditions such as temporary supervision by another attorney, and rehabilitative therapy. To qualify for probation the attorney must affirmatively demonstrate that physical or psychological impairment susceptible to treatment was the cause of misconduct alleged.

The Board may place on inactive status those attorneys who are found to be physically or mentally unable to continue in the practice of law; disciplinary complaints against such individuals are held in abeyance pending an indefinite period of inactive status.

Appeals from Hearing Panel decisions are heard by the Board as matter of right and are based upon the record made before the Hearing Panel. Appeals from a decision of the Board may be pursued by leave only from the Michigan Supreme Court. Appeals may be filed by the Attorney Grievance Commission, the respondent-attorney and the original complainant(s).

Attorneys suspended for 119 days or less may be automatically reinstated upon the filing of an affidavit of compliance with the order of discipline. In cases of suspension of 120 days or more, the attorney must file, after completion of the suspension period, a petition for reinstatement which is followed by a new investigation and establishment by the respondent/attorney of his or her fitness to reenter the practice of law. Attorneys suspended for three (3) years or more must, in addition to reinstatement proceedings, undergo examination and recertification by the Michigan Board of Law Examiners. In Michigan, an attorney whose license has been revoked may petition for reinstatement after five (5) years.

Notices of all final orders of discipline summarizing the findings of the Hearing Panel, the Discipline Board, or the Supreme Court and indicating the nature and effective date of discipline are issued to all court and tribunals in the state and are published in the State Bar Journal each month.

The expenses of the Attorney Discipline Board for the fiscal year October 1, 1985 through September 30, 1986, amounted to $235,293, an increase of 1.9% over the expenses for the previous year. Pursuant to Michigan Court Rule 9.105, all expenses of the Board were paid by the State Bar of Michigan, with no public funding whatsoever.

During the period of October, 1985 to December, 1986 the Attorney Discipline Board disciplined 96 attorneys consisting of 14 revocations, 11 suspensions for three years and over, 30 suspensions for 120 days and less than three years, 10 suspensions for 120 days or less, 26 reprimands, and 5 probations.

THE JUDICIAL TENURE COMMISSION

Michigan created its Judicial Tenure Commission when voters passed the amendment to Article VI, Sec. 30 of the Michigan Constitution in August, 1968. The Judicial Tenure Commission serves to promote the integrity of the judicial process and preserve public confidence in the courts. It strives to hold judges accountable for their misconduct without jeopardizing or compromising the essential independence of the judiciary. The basis for Commission action is a violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct or Rules of Professional Responsibility. The Code is published with the Michigan Court Rules. A copy may be obtained from the Commission upon request.

Narrative of 1986 Activities

The Commission received 351 requests for investigation during the reporting period. A total of 588 grievance forms were mailed to aggrieved parties in responses to written or telephone inquiries. Twelve advisory opinions were issued to judges or judicial candidates. In addition, many other general questions regarding the judiciary and the disciplinary process were answered.

In its public proceedings, the Commission took action regarding six cases. Information is contained in the Commission's full annual report.

Workload Analysis

Since its inception in 1968, the Commission has investigated 3,832 grievances against judicial officers. Of these, 351 were received in 1986 and 368 grievances reached final disposition resulting in a caseload of 72 pending grievances at the end of 1986.

Goals

In addition to the Commission's continued attempt to preserve the honesty and integrity of the judges of this state, it is seeking to implement procedural standards to apply in disability cases. Related to this, it has proposed an amendment to MCR 9.205 which would provide a better definition of disability. The Commission also has as its goal to passage of legislation to liberalize the eligibility requirements for early judicial disability retirement.
